Will Proceed Against Them the Same as with Salcone.

New York, Sept. 9. The police commissioners were asked to-day whether clubs would be proceeded against the same as salcons in the cases of violation of the excise law. President Roosevelt, after a consultation with his colleagues, gave out the following statement:

"A clob, association, or corporation can no more violate the law than an individual. When evidence is obtained against a clot that is violating the law by selling liquor, it or its employes will be proceeded against just as a salcon keeper or his employes. If an officer has evidence of a violation in a clob, it is his duty to make an arrest and he will do so, or he called to an account it any other person has any evidence and applies for a warrant. I have no floation the court will grain it without discrimination."

The norther army concentrated upon Greifenbauen, while the southern army marched upon Kolbetzow, leaving the enemy somewhat upon their flank entirely unmolested. At one time the opposing forces were very much mixed up. Operations were controlled from a captive balloon shaped like a cigar, which floated above the moving masses. At 3.45 r. M. the Emperor Francis Joseph of Austria, King Albert, of Saxony and Princes Leopold and Armulph, of Bavaria, arrived a: the rallway station. They were received with great enthusiasm. The Emperor kissed the Hapsburg Kaiser and the King of Saxony twice each as he met them and the visitors made a grand entry into town.

to the English Soldier - The Romance of the Stolen Angel Which Is Expected I Come Back With a Story.

"Americans take less kindly to discipline of the Army than the English nb," said Captain Elma Vickery of the Salvation Army, Captain Vickery is a Bostonian and has been confidential secretary to Mrs. Mand Ballington Booth since Mrs. Bo th first came to America. "Just what does discipline of the Army means, was asked of her "Doing as one is told—eladience without quest an which is the duty of every soldier in the armies of the world This discipline is a wonderful training, as one realizes watching the effect upon Salvationists. Of course of educate is a Salvationists. Of course obedience is a habit, like faith, that grows more and more by exerc sing it. Now, in the case of Americans we find always much dis-position to question. They always want be know why before they do as they are thid. It becomes needful to explain all the reasons very fully to them, while Parallel mands magnet direction with English people accept directions with-cut cavil. Indeed they seem positively to like it. I think the Americans' attr tade in this respect is due to the propensity of all my country people to setk to impress themselves individually upon their environment, whatever and where ever it may happen to be. Did I feel in this way myself? No, but I will tell you why not. I had the greatest admi-ration for and faith in Mrs. Booth, and as I was entirely under her direction that influence of her personality subjected me completely. I felt she must always be right, and so I was ready unhesitatngly to carry out all her commands. When a Salvationist is not sustained by his strong personal feeling for the officer whose orders must be obeyed, it is sometimes not easy to submut—when one is told to go out and call War Cry-, for instance. That is what I have to do this afternoon down in the slums. You see, I have on my slum clothes," an old calico frock and a dejected looking straw

Mrs. Booth says the great danger in this country for the Army lies in its fendency to work upward among the higher classes. We are sent to the lost sheep. To reach them the methods often condemned and generally misunderstood are the most efficacions?
In support of these methods Captain
Vickery produced "Orders and Regula-tions For Fight Officers," the handbook

Health is life. Feople who are not Lealthy are only half alive. The child who starts out with a robust body and vigorous, while herlith, has everything to be thankful for and nothing to be afraid of. You cannot expect auch a child to spring from a weak and sickly mother. Most all of woman's weakness and particularly the weakness that most strongly influences the health of children, comes from some derangement or dis-ase of the distinctly feminine organs. All such trouble is as unnecessary as it is terribly distressing. Dr. Pierce's Pavorite Prescription will cure all troubles of this statement, and there is no qualification. The "Havorite Prescription" should be asymptoms entirely disappear. In every case, it restores perfect health and strength and spring the prescription of 1 3

Now, there is a strong government, a subdued reople, safe travelling, a completed Bible in the language of the people. There are schools and seminaries, rative pasters and teachers, an indiversal to the land to the cachers, and thousands of congregational and other churches.

Throughout the length and breadth of the land the gospel is being proclaimed. There are few natives in Natal or Zululind, probably, who have not at least had an upportunity of hearing of Liesus Christ. Temptations surround the Christian on every hand, such as the most livored English speaking people have title knowledge of. The mass of the pupulation is still heathen.

For many years the covetous eyes of a portion of the colonists have been upon the mission reserves, and endeavors have teen made to annout the trust decds and throw these lands open to white settlers and surer planning.

But that the interest occasioned by it was due to something else than the romantic suggestions which the use of electricity always creates has recently been made amazingly evident to those who were portles to the combination. They have discovered that this general interest was due more to the belief of those who have large capital hreest d in railways that the time has come when there must be some considerable substitution of electricity for steam, than to those who take the passing interest of an observer in the new things of the lay.

The combination is scatted two months effected, and yet those who have charge of the works are beginning to wonder whether the business that is to be thrust upon them may not exceed the capacity of those great works in l'ittaburg where machinery makes captive of electricity, and those other great works in Philadelph Li which have now for more than fity years turned out iocomotives whose whisles are heard wherever railroad fracks are leid.

"The Cotton King," the sterling melodrama which scores a success here last sesson, was again the affraction at the Opera House last night and continued the good impression previously formed of the play and the players. It has an interesting plot and the action of the piece is vigorous and exciting at times. The special scene of the play is that in which the warehouse elevator is descending upon "Hetty Drayson," who has been locked in underneath it by "Richard Stockley."
